overseas funding of anti-national organisations by making stringent and effective rules?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) to (c) The Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Act, 1976 and the Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Rules, 1976 contain adequate provision to deal with funding of anti-national organizations by individuals and organizations abroad. However, the Government is considering certain changes in the law governing the receipt and utilization of foreign contribution by voluntary organizations to remove shortcomings noticed in the present law.

The draft Bill names 'Foreign Contribution (Management and Control) Bill, 2005' as was presented to the Cabinet, has been uploaded on the Ministry of Home Affairs website: www.mha.nic. for seeking comments/ views of different stakeholders. This may be visited to see the salient features of the proposed legislation. The proposed Bill has been referred to the Group of Ministers by the Cabinet on 23.6.2005.

No instances of massive diversion of funds for anti-national activities have come to the notice of the Government. Adequate provisions exist in the Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Act, 1976, which empower the Central Government to take action against foreign contribution recipient organizations, which are found contravening the provision of the Act, including acceptance of foreign contribution without registration or prior permission, or not properly utilizing it for the stated purposes and objectives. The action includes placing the organization in the prior permission category, prohibiting it from receiving any foreign contribution, freezing its bank account and prosecuting it in a court of law.
